RIESLING, PINOT GRIS & OTHER MOUNTAIN CLIMBERS

These varieties love steep, rocky hillsides and can produce some of the most diverse wines available. From young Rieslings with their teeth shattering acidity through to their aged and noble counterparts, the rounder and always pleasing Pinot Gris and the spicy and perfumed Gewurtztraminers, these wines freshen the mood and sharpen the mind.

PINOT & GAMAY

“God made Cabernet Sauvignon whereas the devil made Pinot Noir.”
Temperamental to grow, difficult to produce and wonderful to drink, Pinot Noir is capable of producing long lived, perfumed and seductive wines.

It's cousin Gamay is pretty delicious too.

SYRAH/SHIRAZ

From the rocky, mistral cooled slopes of the Northern Rhone to the sun baked vineyards of the Barossa Valley, Syrah has become our favourite red variety. It can be fine boned and spicy, or full bodied, rich and decadent.

THE CABERNETS

Peppery and fresh Cabernet Franc came out of the Loire Valley and gave birth to it's famous children Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot, two varieties responsible for some of the world's most famous, long lived and expensive wines. One might think after that it might relax a little, instead Cabernet Franc is having a renaissance in the Loire producing some of the more exciting reds available today. Bordeaux is doing quite well too...
